Senator Or Storyteller?

Ohio Senator Stephen Young has returned from a Viet Nam guided tour with a story claiming the CIA has committed atrocities over there while disguised as Viet Cong guerillas.

The story was vehemently denied by CIA chiefs.

Okay, Senator, the next move is yours.

You have publicly relayed an accusation which, if true, demands action by the highest levels in our government.

As a federal legislator it is your job to probe and correct, to serve as a watchdog over the various bureaus in our government.

Since the story came from your lips, it immediately was given credence in some quarters, despite the lack of facts.

Either you are a gossipmonger or you know what you're talking about. Americans demand to know the truth.
